

So 2011 is now around the corner. This website hasn't had any care, which I have to be honest makes me sad. I am not free from guilt for this as I've had the reigns for around 4/5 months and have done nothing with it. But I am here now, 2011 a fresh year and a fresh start.

Anywho the show must go on. So what does 2011 hold for us here in Cardiff.

The Cardiff International Arena has many great acts coming up, including JLS, Alexandra Burke, Russell Howard and John Bishop.

At the Wales Millennium Centre we have Mammia Mia all month.

Over in St David's Hall we also have some big name acts. These include Shakin' Stevens, James Blunt and Jason Manford to but name a few.

The Millennium Stadium plays host to numerous sporting events including the Annual University Varsity match between Cardiff University and Swansea University Rugby teams but is also going to house Take That for a couple of nights.

Keep your eye on this spot for more news on acts as it comes up :)

2011

Monday, 27 December 2010 03:53

Have a Happy New Year